

VISUAL MARKET INTERIORS

THE MARKET PROPOSAL

Connecting the global interiors marketplace with curated news, company listings & products, inspiration, services and much more.

The Mission

VMI will bring together the global interiors marketplace via a web based platform offering inspiration, online and in person. 365 days a year. 24 hours a day. It will become the go-to resource globally for interior designers and architects to not just see what's new, but find the companies they need to supply and maintain their spaces.

Changing the Status Quo

Traditional marketing opportunities are disappearing or changing at a fast pace. Trade shows are on hold with an undetermined future for 2023. Many print publications are opting to release in digital formats only. But the need for suppliers of the interior industry to show their talents in front of potential clients has not changed.

No one can afford to wait to see what happens before beginning to plan their marketing future.

With these changes comes less opportunity to come together as a community. Visual Market Interiors was created as an answer to that void. All of the voices behind this effort come from, and believe in the industry. This space was created to promote the community and suppliers of interiors.

VMI offers people in the interiors sector a cost effective and efficient way to showcase their achievements. 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. It also offers them a way to stay current, update offerings, share their voice and market through all available means as the sector changes.

Most importantly, interior designers looking for suppliers have a place to come to find them. A single community without leaving their desks if need be, to find companies, view products, news, inspiration and more.

Note: All of the images, companies and content shown on this document are for visual and presentation purposes only.

Main Portal Web Site and Marketing Features

- Main function page showing features and links to the main portal areas
- Listing on home page with link to company page
- Content featuring new products, trends and inspiration, news from NY, Los Angeles, Chicago, London, Paris, Milan and across the Globe
- Company, product and location filter searches
- Full events industry calendar updated weekly
- Regular VMI e-newsletters featuring trends and market information. This will promote the site in general as well as featuring links to company specific sections
- Special promotions during specific events through out the year including via the VMI newsletter, featured agenda and social media
- Connections to your own Social Media accounts if required

Fully responsive website with optimal functionality on all device types

The Market Benefits

You will be provided with your own section that includes a product area featuring up to 10/20 products with downloadable tearsheets depending on package, news, videos and a company bio.

Additional benefits:

- Company name/logo on all promotional materials, email blasts, e-newsletters
- Company name/logo listed on home page with a link to the company area
- The 10/20 products mentioned above can be replaced any time throughout the year as and when required as part of the package, along with liaison and support services. The replacement will be facilitated by our team with no self-administration required. Links back to your own web site to the relevant area will be applied
- The 20 products linked directly to your featured items in your own web site.
- Search criteria on all products and analytical performance report on the clients own area and the mail web site every 3 months
- Video of showroom or project visit to be featured on the event calendar - this is for anyone that wants to do a video presentation during the specific featured events, location is irrelevant
- Ability to list special company events in any highlighted event agenda
- Dedicated extended search engine (SEO) alt tags

The Market Benefits continued

- To supplement the existing Interiors mailing list VMI offer one electronic mail shot advertising the fact they have joined VMI with product highlights as required. VMI would send this mail shot to your own mailing list under a bonded arrangement. Mailing would include option to subscribe to VMI Newsletters. The effect would be that the Bi-monthly newsletter or any other promotional mail shots would then go out to an ever increasing Interiors audience
- Opportunity to be featured in the VMI newsletter at least four times during the year to promote their company and projects

VMI newsletter featuring Company News, Product Spotlight, Trends/Inspiration & Project Spotlights
